

Miraculous Conduct

Actions of body and speech are of such variety
And when they are in motion, doing whatever it may be
Join them with view and meditation that transcend conceptuality
For these are the greatest friends of conduct's activity

When not practicing formal meditation
Enter the samadhi where all experience is illusion
Illusion-like samadhi is the adorning jewel
Of this conduct that is a miracle

Khenpo Tsultrim Gyamtso Rinpoche sung this extemporaneously on December 22, 1997 and put it to song, entitled "The Miraculous View, Meditation, Conduct, and Fruition: A Little Song at the Heart of the Profound Meaning."
